A Cultural History of the Senses in the Middle Ages.

Edited by Richard G. Newhauser

Vol. 2 of A Cultural History of the Senses.

Table of Contents

Introduction: The Sensual Middle Ages
Richard G. Newhauser

1 The Social Life of the Senses: Experiencing the Self, Others, and Environments
Chris Woolgar

2 Urban Sensations: The Medieval City Imagined
Kathryn Reyerson

3 The Senses in the Marketplace: Markets, Shops, and Shopping in Medieval Towns
Martha Carlin

4 The Senses in Religion: Liturgy, Devotion, and Deprivation
Béatrice Caseau

5 The Senses in Philosophy and Science: Mechanics of the Body or Activity of the Soul?
Pekka Kärkkäinen

6 Medicine and the Senses: Feeling the Pulse, Smelling the Plague, and Listening for the Cure
Faith Wallis

7 The Senses in Literature: The Textures of Perception
Vincent Gillespie
8 Art and the Senses: Art and Liturgy in the Middle Ages

Eric Palazzo

9 Sensory Media: From Sounds to Silence, Sight to Insight

Hildegard Elisabeth Keller